

THE 2019 SPRING MEETING
Sunday 12th May at the St Alban's Centre, Holborn

A Buffet Lunch at 1 pm and at approx. 2.15 pm
a rehearsed reading from

Excellent Women

Last year's Spring Meeting was reported in Green Leaves as 'a Spring Meeting with a difference'. Those who attended were treated to a rehearsed reading of dramatised scenes from No Fond Return of Love under the title It Would Have to be Contrived. The performance was directed by Tristram Powell and adapted by his daughter, Georgia. He also recruited the distinguished cast, who gave a marvellous performance. Tristram was so pleased with the performance and with the enthusiasm and support of Pym Members that he suggested that other Pym novels should be adapted for future Spring Meetings, and he and Georgia immediately proposed Excellent Women for the 2019 Spring Meeting. We most enthusiastically said 'Yes please' and so can offer the performance of Georgia's adaptation of Excellent Women at the 2019 Spring Meeting of the BPS in the St. Alban's Centre, Leigh Place, Baldwin's Gardens, London EC1N 7AB, on Sunday 12th May.

Members & their guests are also invited to attend High Mass at 11 am in the adjoining Parish Church of St Alban the Martyr.

----- ✂ -----
-Please return this form with your cheque to Eileen Roberts, The Barbara Pym Society, St Hilda's College, Oxford, OX4 1DY by 3 May 2019. Questions: please call Eileen at 07810 460688

- I/we will attend the Spring Meeting and would like lunch (£21.00 pp, including a glass of wine)
- I/we will attend the Spring Meeting but will not require lunch (£5.00pp)

I enclose a cheque for _____ (made payable to the Barbara Pym Society)

NAME(S): _____

ADDRESS: _____

POSTCODE: _____ TEL: _____ MOBILE _____

EMAIL: _____

GUEST'S NAME: _____